FINANCE AND TRADE.

FINANCIAL BUSINESS is a very quiet pursuit at present-little money inquired for, the banks all comfortably off This is the state of things here and everywhere else. The New York Bulletin says: "The bank statement shows a Arkansas prairie at $12; 70 bales choice bulk meats quiet at $\frac{1}{2}$. Whisky are the bank statement shows a statement shows a Arkansas prairie at $12; 70 bales choice bulk meats quiet at $\frac{1}{2}$. Whisky large gain in legal-tenders and a gain of mixed at $23. over $500,000 in specie, the latter being unaccountable. The gain in legal-tendera results from the currency movement being in favor of the New York banks, and also from the working of the redemption agency at Washington. New York banks, fortunately, under the redemption law, have it in their power to prevent being overloaded with the notes at $2 50@2 75-generally the latter-for of country banks, as in previous seasons. They simply bundle them up, send them notes for them." Exchange is as dull as everything else at par buying on New York, selling at ‡ premium; ‡ discount 14½@15c for refined.

Bulletin says of the English failures: To a certain extent, we may expect to uffer from the condition of things in England thus foreshadowed, But the injury we may sustain will have very important compensations. Thus far, there have been no failures in branches of trade which buy from this country. Mesers. Alex. Collie & Co., though in the cotton trade, appear to have been concerned only with the India staple. But, even if this exemption should continue, we must expect the English demand for our raw materials and articles of feed to suffer some curtailment, with more or less depreciation of prices. But any disadvantage of this kind will be more than set off by our saving in the lower prices of articles im-ported from Great Britain; for the deression which has been inaugurated by these failures cannot fail to produce a general reduction in wages and in prices a that country." There was nothing doing in local securities except taking in a little Shelby county scrip at 71@72 city fire and police scrip at 75, and State

THE COTTON MARKET was stronger yesterday. In New York askings were higher; in New Orleans there was ic advance; Liverpool was firm with sales of 12,000 bales. Holders in our market were stiff and asking higher; in fact the show of samples was poor, the owners of favorite cottons not offering at present prices. There were several small orders in, and buyers were pretty active but less successful than they had hoped; clean stains, good ordinary and middling were principally sought for. It is said that there is a want of rain in some districts, and that forther drouth will. in several places, change the smiling aspect of the time. The closing telegrams were as follows: New York firm, olders asking higher, 15tc, sales, 4379 bales. New Orleans quiet and higher at 15ic; sales, 100 bales; receipts, Liverpool firm at 7 7 164; Orleans, 711; sales, 12 000 bales, of which bales were American. Captain Rent, Haines went out in command of the Belle of Texas Tuesday, Captain Darragh being called up the river on urgent business..... Captain Thomas Darragh, formely clerk of the Paragon, was married to Miss Jennie Finley at Pittsburg a few days ago A correspondent of a St. Louis paper, writing from Hot Springs, having found out that Jim Lee always takes his meals in the texas of the Allin, says that he has the gout from high living The Charles Morgan is due to-day, and will leave for New Orleans this afternoon. .All the marines will go to the Ma-

some picnic at James's park this evening.....During the Parker's stay in port Judge Kelso kept hid, fearing Leubeie would tackle him to act as judge at the baby-show at James's park this afternoon..... The Cincinnati Enquirer sums it up thusly for the coming fall business: "From appearances there will be lively competition in the southern trades next season. Captain John W. Cannon and associates are talking of running a daily line from New Orleans to Vicksburg, while there will be at least four boats in the Memphis trade. The Vicksburg trade, it is said, will comprise the following steamers: Katle, Robert E. Lee, Quachita Belle, Frank Pargoud, Governor Alien, and Natchez. To Mem-phis there will be the Mary Belle and James Howard running in partnership, while the John B. Maude and Thompson Dean will also enter this trade and compete for a share of the business. The Mary Bell and Howard will carry each ten thousand bales, and to concentrate this vast amount of cotton they will have to take it cheap. This, we understand, they intend to do, and, moreover, they will go for everything in sight at Vicksburg and from there down." Louisville, St. Louis, and Cincinnati are fearfully exercised on the subject of whisky. The revenue officials keep the pot boiling and daily exposes are made f frauds in the manufacture and traffic n the stuff. Beer is our passion, and we are composed The Illinois, with Joe Speers and the torpedo-chicken will arrive to-night. By the way, it comes to us by grapevine that the entire stock of torpedo-chickens carried down by the Illinois was exhausted on the marine blonde at Vicksburg, and he didn't flicker once, but yelled for more.....It seems that a hitch has occurred in that other whariboat matter, and its arrival here will not be as early as at first supposed. That's bad; we need all the wharfboats that can be induced to come here to protect our river front ... The Vicksburg Herald has the following: "John Chamberlain, advance agent of Sell Howell & Aymer's Great American circus, is a well known river clerk, formerly in the Parisot line, but more recently of the Memphis packet Quickstep. Champ, as he was familiarly known here in time agone, is at home in Vicksburg, and is greeted by many old friends among the river boys. Just running a circus! As Will Aymar would say, who would a thunk it."
